THE BLUE DANUBE GOLF CRUISE

5 CHAMPIONSHIP COURSES | 5 COUNTRIES | 10 DAYS | 1 LUXURY RIVER CRUISE

A panoramic view of a city at dusk, featuring a large river, a suspension bridge, and illuminated buildings. The sky is a deep blue, and the city lights are beginning to glow. The river is calm, reflecting the lights from the buildings and the bridge. The suspension bridge is a prominent feature, with its towers and cables clearly visible. The buildings are a mix of classical and modern architecture, with many windows lit up. The overall scene is a beautiful representation of a European city at night.

LGT GOLF was founded with the intention of providing a golf concierge program for guests of AmaWaterways river cruises. ## THE OAKS PRAGUE PGA NATIONAL

Design: Kyle Philips

Ranking: Czech Republic: 1 | Europe 70

Designed by Kyle Philips, the PGA National is the first of its kind in the Czech Republic. An absolute stunning track, and destined to rise into Europe's great courses. Even 2 years after its opening, it already commands an impressive 77th in Europe. Philips' other courses, Bernardus, Lage Vuursche and The Links in Sweden are already cemented in the top 50.

The course is tough but fair, and scoring is definitely possible, but the quality, maintenance and the customer experience journey is second to none.

QUELLNESS GOLF RESORT

Design: Bernhard Langer, Kurt Rosknecht

Ranking: Germany South West: 32

Regal golfing pleasure on lush greens and perfect fairways – this championship course, created by former Masters champion Bernhard Langer, seems to be one with the meadow landscape surrounding the small river Rott and was awarded a “world class” rating within one year of opening. The 18 holes in Penning, right beside the Porsche Golf Course, do indeed pack a punch. They don't hold back when it comes to challenges, but also offer sufficient opportunities for some serious success.

The course is a solid test, but there are 2 very long Par 3's at 200 Yards from the regular tees, requiring length. This course with Langer's devious mind influencing it, makes the GIR irrelevant, exemplified by the Par 4 2nd, where most will lay up and play for a chip and run par, which is exactly what Langer wants to test.

The quality of maintenance and customer experience is great, and makes a days golfing a blast.

The second course, called Heritage, and designed by Jonathan Davidson and shaped by Mick McShane (Kingsbarns, K Club) was opened 1 year after the Legend course. With a philosophy of Golden Era design with minimalistic approach, it catapulted into 93rd spot in the European Top 100

BRG LEGENDS HILL

BRG Legend Hill Golf Resort is also the first golf course in Vietnam to implement a unique two green per every hole concept. Golfers have the unique experience of playing an 18-hole golf course with 36 green complexes.

The Caddies and the staff at the club are great and really work hard to ensure that your golfing day is a great experience. However the scenery is just utterly amazing especially here on the 18th Tee.

FLC HALONG BAY

Design: Brian Curley

Ranking: Vietnam 5

FLC Ha Long Bay Golf Club opened for play in August 2017. the 18-hole championship Schmidt-Curley designed layout offers stunning scenic ocean views over the famous UNESCO world heritage site. The golf course sits above the old town of Ha Long Bay and overlooks the spectacular limestone karst-riddled bay. The excitement builds as you drive up the winding road leading to the massive complex before arriving in the valet area in front of the property. A Golf Bag baggage system whisks your clubs to the caddy/cart reception area as you go into the club house and grab a locker in the expansive locker room area.

From the moment that you tee off, you know you are in for a treat, and the course itself is a difficult layout winding through canyons and hills. You are definitely challenged on this 6800 yard course no matter your handicap. And then you reach the Par 3 and forget all about golf as you see the famous halong bay in the background.

TWIN DOVES GOLF RESORT

Design: Peter Rousseau

Ranking: Vietnam 18

Twin Doves Golf Resort is a world-class private golf club within a resort and villa estate that consists of a 27-hole international championship golf course. The three loops of nine are called Luna, Mare and Sole and can be played interchangeably.

The Luna course provides a scenic environment characterized by numerous small hills, and natural forests, incorporating all the natural elements of the terrain as challenging hazards. The Mare course has its holes flanked by creeks and trees and demands accurate shots since the greens are multi-tiered and guarded by water hazards. The Sole Course plays around a blue lake featuring island greens and beach bunkers, and is probably our favourite of the three visually.

Regardless of the routing, the service and maintenance quality is sublime and a real treat for golf in Vietnam.

TAN SON NHAT GOLF CLUB

Design: Nelson & Haworth

Ranking: Vietnam: 26 | Europe 33

This fantastic 36 hole complex is located next to the runways of the International Airport in Ho Chi Minh City, and was designed by Nelson and Hayworth. 36 holes of world class golf is set up in 4 interchangeable loops of 9 with the impressive clubhouse set in the middle. The shaping and sculpting of the course was an immense job considering the surrounding area is completely flat and moved some 1.5 million cubic meters of earth. Ron Leck, the lead shaper deserves a lot of credit for this magnificent course. Water is in play on most holes and second shots into the true rolling greens are the key to scoring well here.

The caddies are helpful and polite, and as opposed to most clubs in Asia, here the caddies are all male. The impressive clubhouse boasts wonderful facilities including hot tubs, steam baths, showers and grooming areas. The Restaurant has an extensive buffet, and is a wonderful way to wind down after the round.

THE ENCHANTING RHINE GOLF CRUISE

6 MAGNIFICENT GOLF COURSES | 1 RANKED WORLD TOP 100 | 3 EUROPEAN TOP 100 | 4 COUNTRIES | 1 LUXURY RIVERCRUISE SHIP

If you ask a gofer who were the first to play golf, you might be surprised to hear that Holland, or more precisely The Netherlands, mentioned. There is enough evidence that this may truly be the case. Nevertheless, with architects such as Harry Colt, Tom Simpson, Robert von Hagge and one of the modern greats, Kyle Philips, the courses in the Netherlands and along the Rhine are fun, enjoyable, yet challenging, and really well designed. As a Panelist involved in rating golf courses, I personally see a lot of courses that do not get the accolades they deserve as they are off the beaten path. With this cruise lets explore 6 of these courses, of which 3 are in the European top 100.

HILVERSUMSCHE GOLF CLUB

Design: Harry Colt, Kyle Philips

Ranking: Netherlands: 6 | Europe 33

This club is one of the most exclusive in the Netherlands and celebrated its 100th anniversary in 2010. In recent years, the course, located in the Kievitsdal, has been renovated by architect Kyle Philips, with the original landscape and aspects of the former architect Harry S. Colt being retained wherever possible. In 2010, all renovations were completed for the Hilversumsche Golf Club to host the KLM Dutch Open for the 25th time. Ranked 49th in Europe, the heathland course of the Hilversumsche last hosted the Dutch Open from 2010 - 2012 with Martin Kaymer, Simon Dyson and Peter Hanson each triumphant over the beautiful Phillips and Colt designs.

GOLF SOCIETEET LAGE VUURSICHE

Design: Kyle Philips

Ranking: Netherlands: 9 | Europe 90

The Golsociëteit De Lage Vuursche layout was fashioned by Kyle Phillips and it opened for play in the year 2000. This was an ambitious restoration project which aimed to revert flat farmland back to its former glory of rolling terrain flanked by woodland. The result is that Lage Vuursche has found its level as one of Holland's premier courses that stretches out beyond 6,900 yards from the tips.

Serpentine shaped canals and a number of lakes come into play on twelve holes with adroit and sometimes raised bunkering waiting to catch the errant shot. The large greens should be easy to find but it takes courage to block so many prominent hazards from your mind. Newly planted trees naturally require time to mature but already they are adding to the challenge and the appeal of Lage Vuursche.

MAINZER GOLF CLUB

Design: Cristoph Staedler

Ranking: South West Germany: 32

This hidden masterpiece is quickly climbing up the rankings of rated golf courses in Germany, to our dismay as we liked the fact that it was a secret. The course is massively underrated and a design genius. Effectively 2 loops of 9, called Canyon and Panorama. The front 9, Canyon offers 9 brilliantly designed holes on the site of a former quarry, while the back 9 Panorama offers beautiful views of the Rheingau wine region. Exemplary service and maintenance rounds up an extremely pleasurable round of golf.

GOLF CLUB LE KEMPFERHOF

Design: Robert von Hagge

Ranking: France: 14 | Europe 77

Ranked 49th in continental Europe, this 1990 Robert von Hagge design is one of the most beautiful courses in the Alsace region. Situated in a beautiful 85 Hectare park, the 19th century former hunting lodge doubles as the Golf Club. Plenty of water and bold bunkering typify this very challenging golf course. Situated just a few miles south of the capital city of Europe, Strasbourg, the course is the perfect complement to the region.

CLUB GOLF BASEL ST APPOLINAIRE

Design: Robert Trent Jones

Ranking: Italy: 4 | Europe 79

Measuring 6,800 meters from its longest tees, this 18-hole par 72 championship course shows its tournament class. Thanks to 5 strongly staggered tee boxes, the course also offers recreational golfers the chance to enjoy a relaxed round from the front tees.

Every hole has its own unmistakable character and associated strategy. The large, decisive water hazards and bunkers guarantee an exciting round of golf in the former fruit garden of the Cistercian monks who built the monastery in the 12th century.

THE ITALIAN JOB

Suffice it to say we will not be driving Mini Coopers on this tour, but we will visit Ferrari the Museum and have lunch at the Cavallino, the restaurant founded by Enzo Ferrari himself. ## EXCELSIOR HOTEL GALLIA, A LUXURY COLLECTION

Milan, Italy

Excelsior Hotel Gallia, as the hotel is now known, has always been one of the most prestigious hotels in Italy, ever since its official opening on 29th February 1932. This architectural jewel of belle époque sophistication is an iconic and visually distinct landmark it being the hotel of choice for Italy's social elite since the very beginning. Today, that evocative legacy continues to inspire every detail. A stunning architectural feature, with impressive domed roof, attention-grabbing interiors and modern new wing have been cleverly styled by local designer, Marco Piva, offering contemporary detailing, offset by timeless Milanese artisanal pieces and covetable Italian furnishings. Scroll down to explore more about the intriguing history of this glittering hotel.

CASTELCONTURBIA

Design: Robert Trent Jones

Ranking: Italy: 4 | Europe 79

Designed by Robert Trent Jones, Castelconturbia Golf Club opened for play in 1984 to a standing ovation. It's located about one hour's drive to the north of Milan and it has bags of Italian style.

Castelconturbia is one of Italy's most challenging courses and with three nine-hole loops there are a number of playing combinations. If you want to play the Italian Open course, you'll need to play the Blue and Yellow nines (the Red course makes up the 27 holes) and, if you want to score well, you'll need to have some accurate approach shots in your armoury. The Castelconturbia greens are huge, and very difficult to read and they can be cruel with their pin placements. Let's hope the weather is kinder for your visit than it was for the 1998 Italian Open, which saw José Maria Olazábal emerge victorious.

VENICE DAY 3-5

SPLENDID HOTEL STARHOTELS COLLEZIONE

Venice, Italy

The relationship between Splendid Venice, the hotel, and splendid Venice, the city, goes back a long time. An inn was first built on this site in the sixteenth century, and the property has been almost continuously in use as hotel since, although a 21st-century renovation eradicated any traces of mustiness or fustiness in the accommodations. Can't argue with the decision to keep the rosy façade with casement windows — splendid, indeed.

And who'd want to obscure the inescapable fact that you're in Venice, anyway? You enter, for example, by water taxi or gondola onto a private dock, complete with characteristic candy-stripe mooring poles. The lobby opens onto a traditional campiello, or glass-topped atrium, from which you'll have easy access to an elegant ground-floor complex of dining and lounging spaces, nearly all of it illuminated by sizable windows. Le Maschere is a definite highlight, its name recalling the neighborhood's history as a mask district: feast on Venetian specialties, mostly seafood, then transition to the sumptuous, convivial bar for bellinis and gondola-watching.

VENICE

Walking around Venice feels like a dream. The impossible blue of the canals, the fine mist that sometimes hangs over the city, the experience of turning a corner and seeing an all-white church on an island of its own, or a spindly tree sprouting directly out of the lagoon, give the place a “wait, is this real?” quality that's hard to shake. It's also a city of contrasts: You can see Renaissance masterpieces in dark, moody churches or cutting-edge contemporary art on the repurposed grounds of a Byzantine shipyard, drink prosecco on the terrace of a Grand Dame hotel or sip plastic cups of Cynar spritz across the canal from a gondola repair shop. And although it's notoriously easy to get lost, that's part of the joy of discovery. You never know where you might find the next romantically crumbling palazzo, secret garden, or plate of perfect cicchetti.

FLORENCE DAYS 5-7

Florence, Italy

The Hotel Regency exudes an ambience reminiscent of the enchanting Regency Era, when Florentine aristocrats were enamored of art, creativity, the written word, and an invigorating, lively life spent in good company.

Each room is filled with history and dressed with elegant, sophisticated designs and deep hues. Guests are able to feel at home at the Regency Firenze, where their needs are anticipated with discreet, personalized attention.

Regency Firenze is a haven of sheer perfection at the heart of one of the most astounding cities in the world.

GOLF UGOLINO

Design: Blandford and Gannon

Ranking: Italy: 23

The course was designed by an Englishman and an Irishman, Cecil Blandford and Peter Gannon. They used the natural contours of the Chianti slopes to produce an outstanding course, threaded through the indigenous vines, olive trees, maritime pines, and broom. The course is not long but demands a high degree of skill. The greens are small and well defended by bunkers. The sloping fairways also present a great challenge. To play Ugolino is not just to indulge in a game of golf, it is to wander through a landscape of great natural beauty, surrounded by olive and other fruit trees. It is an unforgettable and uplifting experience. In his book Fifty Places to Play Golf Before You Die, Chris Santella includes Ugolino as one of the fifty places to play.

FLORENCE

Renaissance, Power, Intrigue and David

Cradle of the Renaissance, romantic, enchanting and utterly irresistible, Florence (Firenze) is a place to feast on world-class art and gourmet Tuscan cuisine. Few cities are so compact in size or so packed with extraordinary art and architecture masterpieces at every turn. The urban fabric of this small city, on the banks of the Arno river in northeastern Tuscany, has hardly changed since the Renaissance and its narrow cobbled streets are a cinematic feast of elegant 15th- and 16th-century palazzi (palaces), medieval candle-lit chapels, fresco-decorated churches, marble basilicas and world-class art museums brimming with paintings and sculptures by Botticelli, Michelangelo et al. Unsurprisingly, the entire city centre is a Unesco World Heritage Site.

Food and wine which is sourced locally, seasonally and sustainably is the holy trinity and Florentines share an enormous pride in their culinary tradition. Their city, surrounded by wine-rich hills, is a gourmet paradise where eating and drinking exceedingly well is mandatory.

Design: Robert Trent Jones Jr.

Ranking: Italy 25

Situated less than a 30-minute drive from the centre of Siena, a designated UNESCO World Heritage Site, the 18-hole layout at Royal Golf La Bagnaia is Robert Trent Jones Jr's first design in Tuscany, and it's one of three Italian courses currently in the American architect's portfolio.

The course is set out as an "inland links" within an enormous, rolling estate where fairways are positioned around the sparkling waters of five attractive lakes. Indeed, many of the feature holes on both nines are set out beside these attractive water hazards.

In the portfolio of IMG Prestige, the course promises to be one of the finest in Europe, and the combination of the high quality care from IMG and the team at Bagnaia, the irreplaceable Tuscan culture, and the rolling hills of Siena this could become one of the best of the best.

GRAND HOTEL PALACE

Rome, Italy

Grand Hotel Palace is a boutique five star hotel, with 87 luxury guest rooms, situated in the centre of historic Rome, on Via Veneto.

The impressive hotel building was once known as the Ambassadors' Palace and the entrance is through an elegant wrought iron gate, which brings guests into a covered seating area that is reminiscent of the Bohemian street cafés of Rome.

The hotel was designed by architect Marcello Piacentini and is adorned with large, stunning frescoes by Venetian artist, Guido Cadorin. The refined Italian design and the contemporary art deco style, with marble floors, chandeliers made of Murano crystal and colourful mosaics, is influenced by the grand days of Roman architecture.

OLGIATA WEST

Design: C.K. Cotton and Frank Pennink

Ranking: Italy: 5 | Europe 98

All 27 holes at Olgiata are set in sumptuous parkland surroundings where the terrain is mildly undulating and fairways are separated by avenues of magnificent mature trees. The two 9-hole loops of the West course fan out from the clubhouse in opposite directions with many of the well-bunkered holes gently doglegging left or right.

The club co-hosted the Italian Open with Roma Acquisanta in 1973. More recently, Ian Poulter claimed the Italian Open title here in 2002 and Bernd Wiesberger prevailed in 2019. The club has twice hosted the World Cup; the first time in 1968 when the Canadian two-man team of Al Balding and George Knudson lifted the trophy; and the second occasion in 1984, with the Spanish winners from two years previous, José Maria Cañizares and José Rivero, triumphing again. In 2010 Jim Fazio performed an extensive renovation when fifteen holes were modified.

ACQUASANTA

Design: Unknown

Ranking: Italy: 6

It was back in 1903 that a number of like-minded, golf-mad British expatriates created the first Italian golf course – along with a cricket pitch and tennis court – at Roma Acquasanta, to the south east of the Eternal City. Over 100 years later, Roma Acquasanta Golf Club remains not only one of the most prestigious clubs in the country and a wonderfully atmospheric place to play golf, but also Italy's oldest golf course. Laid out over an enchanting parkland landscape, with views of the Via Appia Antica, Aqua Claudius arches and ancient tomb of Cecilia Metella in the background, Roma Acquasanta seems suspended in a time warp with the course and its surroundings standing still as the modern world goes by.

AMALFI COAST 11-14

AMALFI COAST AND SORRENTO

Italy

A small resort with a big reputation, Sorrento is a town of lemons, high-pedigree hotels and plunging cliffs that cut through the heart of the historical core. The town's longstanding popularity stems from its location at the western gateway to the Amalfi. It's also on the train line to Pompeii and has regular fast-ferry connections to Naples and Capri.

Tourism has a long history here. It was a compulsory stop on the 19th-century 'Grand Tour' and interest in the town was first sparked by the poet Byron, who inspired a long line of holidaying literary geniuses – including Goethe, Dickens and Tolstoy – to sample the Sorrentine air. The romance persists. Wander through Piazza Tasso on any given Sunday and you'll be exposed to one of Italy's finer passeggiatas (strolls), snaking past palatial hotels, magnificent marquetry shops and simple Campanian restaurants serving gnocchi alla sorrentina finished off with a shot of ice-cold limoncello.

GRAND HOTEL AMBASCIATORI

Sorrento, Italy

It says something about the absurdly high standards of Italy as a travel destination that Sorrento is often in danger of being somewhat overlooked. But with the Amalfi Coast just around the corner, and Capri just a hydrofoil hop away, that's exactly what it is. Which is insane, because a view over the Bay of Naples is something extraordinary, any way you slice it — just ask anyone who's seen the Grand Hotel Ambasciatori (to pick a convenient enough example).

These days Italian design means influences stretching all the way back to the Roman empire coexist gracefully with contemporary color schemes and eye-catching modern furniture. At any rate, that's what it means here. The better rooms are the ones with the sea views, naturally, though there's not a bad room in the place — and the suites, which themselves range quite widely in size, are little short of extraordinary.

GOLF CLUB AM MONDSEE

Design: Max Lamberg

Ranking: Austria: 6

Outstanding design, superb course maintenance and the picturesque embedding into the landscape provides a golfing experience for all senses on the consistently flat 18 holes. While golf beginners have a fair chance of good scores from the front tees, top golfers can muster their entire golf repertoire to earn a birdie from the champion tees. The fairways 15 to 18 are among the best finishing holes in the golf world. Perennial water is just one of the imminent dangers that accelerate the heartbeat.

ROYAL OSTEND

Design: Seymour Dunn

Ranking: Europe 82

Commissioned by King Leopold II and designed by Seymour Dunn, the course opened for play in 1903. Belgium's only links course, it was renovated by famed Martin Hawtree in the 1990's and is considered by some to be the best course in the country. Its 82nd spot in the rankings in Europe is well deserved. Wind plays a big part in the strategy on this course, and the greens and fairways are in great condition between April and October.

Special Rules: Shorts with Knee length socks or mid-calf. No short socks. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 34

ROYAL ZOUTE

Design: Harry Colt

Ranking: Europe 31

12 time host of the Belgium Open

Royal Zoute gained its royal charter in 1925, but the course had already been opened for play 25 years earlier. Redesigned by Harry Colt, the course started out as a links course, but after the tree planting in the late 1940's Royal Zoute has become a Hybrid Links course. Having hosted the Belgian Open 8 times, it has seen a lot of professional golfers including Arnold Palmer, Sir Nick Faldo to name but two. Nick Faldo described it as a hidden Gem.

Special Rules: Socks must cover ankles completely. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 34

ROYAL ANTWERP

Design: Tom Simpson

Ranking: Europe 43

3 time host to the Belgium Open

Royal Antwerp is home to Belgium's oldest golf club, dating back to 1888. Designed by Tom Simpson, it has since developed into one of the finest wooded heathland courses in north west Europe. The terrain is relatively flat, providing an easy-walking course, although one with plenty of inherent challenges, not least staying out of the trees and plentiful bunkering, and getting down in two on the usually immaculate and fast greens. Water ditches are scarce, making a brief appearance on just a couple of holes. At over 6600 yards from the back tees the course plays long enough for most golfers, especially if there's a bit of wind swishing around between the pines. This is not a layout that requires a booming drive off every tee.

Special Rules: Socks must cover ankles completely. No caps to be worn in the Club-house Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 28 Walking only

BERNARDUS

Design: Kyle Philips

Ranking: Europe 25

Host of the KLM Dutch Open

Bernardus Golf is a challenging 18-hole championship golf course, designed by American architect Kyle Phillips, which only opened in 2018 and is set to become one of his masterpieces. Host of the 2021 and 2022 KLM Dutch Open and already ranked 25th in Europe, the course is a picture of harmonious balance between nature, golf and player.

Bernardus Golf was built as a Heathland golf course, which makes it accessible to any golfer. The numerous bunkers are laid out beautifully and the tricky water hazards seamlessly blend in with the background of dunes, heath and gorse. A day of Bernardus gives you the ultimate feeling of peace, quiet and relaxation. Both on the course and on the driving range and short-game area.

HILVERSUMSCHE GOLF CLUB

Design: Harry Colt

Ranking: Europe 32

28 time host of the Dutch Open, European Tour

The Hilversumsche Golf club just underwent a major rebuild of its club house, but the Harry Colt designed course still ranks as Europe's 23rd best. As a championship golf venue, the course has hosted a staggering 30 Dutch Open Championships, the last of which was in 2012. Harry Colt, the star architect at the beginning of the 20th Century saw his work renovated by the star of the 21st Century, Kyle Phillips, letting the course stand the test of time. Like De Pan, the course is a private members club and one of the most exclusive in the Netherlands.

Special Rules: No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 24. Buggies available.

UTRECHT DE PAN GOLF CLUB

Design: Harry Colt

Ranking: Europe 3 | World 86

3 time host of the Dutch Open, European Tour

The name Harry Colt could have been used to title this tour, as we find many of the world's top 100 courses designed by that iconic golf architect. Utrecht de Pan is no exception ranking 3rd in Europe and 86th in the world. The course is laid out in classic English heathland style doglegging through stands of pine, birch, and oak. Martin Hawtree renovated the course in the 1990's cementing De Pan's place in the world's top rankings. And to remind us all of the course's name, the statue of Pan greets you as you walk off the 18th.

Special Rules: Long socks with shorts. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 24. Buggies available on an extremely limited basis.

HAMBURGER GOLF CLUB

Design: Harry Colt

Ranking: Europe 11

8 time host of the German Open, European Amateur Championships

Harry Colt was also asked to design the new course for the Hamburg Golfclub, and in 76 days, with horse, tractor and 140 men completed the task including the seeding. What emerged is one of the best inland tracks in continental Europe, and one of the few courses that have Colt's original bunker systems and green complexes as thought out by the great designer. This is due in large part to the perfect land. With a complete absence of water on the course, this is a perfect chance to play Harry Colts finest design in Germany.

Special Rules: No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 24. Walking only.

WINSTON GOLF

Design: David Krause

Ranking: Europe 69

7 time Host of the European Seniors Tour

East of Hamburg lies one of Germany's most controversial courses, because it's a links course that's no where near the ocean. David Krause designed a course that doffs its hat to the original links courses, but in such a clever way that there are no more than a few steps from green to tee. Seeded with 3 different types of Fescue, the only difference between fairway, rough, green and tee-box is just the height of the cut. For the high handicapper, this course is not recommended. At 7000 yards the course is punishing unless you keep it on the short stuff, but wow what an experience to play this incredible course.

Special Rules: Handicap Certificate required Max 36. Walking only. Electric trolleys available

WEST SUSSEX

Design: Campbell, Hutchison and Hotchkin

Ranking: World 91

Host of the Womens Amateur Championship and Vagliano Trophy

West Sussex is little-known except by real golf aficionados, yet it offers one of England's best heathland challenges. This is heathland golf at its prettiest and best, on a layout where design intricacies form the bulk of the challenge rather than length. Affectionately known as a long short course, don't let the par of 68 and modest length of 6,351 yards lull you into a false sense of security, for there is only one par 5 – the opening hole – and several lengthy par 4s, especially on the back nine. The opening Par 5 is the easiest on the course, and its best to get your birdie on the cards as the challenge of the course hasn't even started.

Special Rules: Caps, visors, hats and waterproofs should be removed when in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 36. Walking only

ROYAL CINQUE PORTS

Design: Hunter, Braid and Campbell

Ranking: World 95

2 time Open Championship Venue

Royal Cinque Ports (pronounced 'Sink' port, and also known as Deal) is a classic links course which will have you grinning from ear to ear. It's been host to the Open on two occasions and countless top quality amateur tournaments. Right on the coast, it is probably rare to find Cinque Ports on a calm day and the yardages on the card will only count for so much. From the yellow tees it is a pleasant 6,500 yards and it's a classic out and back course with the first in front of the clubhouse playing to the south before turning along the shore for holes 2-10 (normally with the wind) and then turning into the prevailing breeze for 11-18.

Special Rules: Long socks with shorts. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Tie and Jacket in the clubroom after 11 Am. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 24. Walking Only with caddies (Included)

ROYAL ST GEORGE

Design: Purves, Mackenzie and Pennink

Ranking: World 22

14 time Open Championship venue

What can you say about the 22nd best golf course in the world other than WOW! IT starts with the member of staff in a tie and blazer, an incredibly warm welcome, and goes to the professional caddie that guides your round as you tee off on the first hole of this Par 70 6340 yard course. Each and every hole is one to fall in love with. The 4th with the tallest and deepest bunker in England, the 5th as you catch your first sight of the sea, where the romans landed in 46 AD, every hole is a pleasure to play and this course deserves its ranking in the worlds top 30. Caddies are included in your round and are essential in making the experience as special as it is.

Special Rules: Long socks with shorts. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 18. Walking Only with Caddies (Included). Jacket and Tie in the Clubhouse after 11 am.

GOLF AND COUNTRYCLUB SEDDINER SEE

Design: Robert Trent Jones Jr.

Ranking: Germany 23

The grandson of the Iron Chancellor, Otto von Bismark led the development of this golf complex, and the south course was opened for play in 1997. Designed by Robert Trent Jones, it is his only course in Germany. The course features a lot of bunkers and sand, however there is a subtlety to the design, and the “resistance to scoring” is well and truly defined here. It's a great course to play, but focus, accuracy and long shots are asked of every golfer.

The wonderful clubhouse and its members are extremely welcoming in this Berlin suburb.

GOLF CLUB BAD SAAROW - PALMER COURSE

CARNE GOLF LINKS

Design: Eddie Hackett, Ally McIntosh

Ranking: UK and Ireland 66, Ireland 14

Carne in North Mayo on the West Coast of Ireland lies in magnificent unspoiled sand dunes overlooking Blacksod Bay and the wild Atlantic Ocean near the town of Belmullet. Discover Erris in North Mayo an area that is famed the world over for its golf course and white sandy Atlantic beaches that stretch for miles, its bountiful wildlife and warm welcome. Carne Golf Links was the last links course to be designed by the late Eddie Hackett and it is now believed by many who have played it to be his greatest design. Carne is now ranked as the 10th best course in Ireland and among the Top 50 in Britain and Ireland.

An additional 9 holes (The Kilmore 9) opened in 2013, and these holes were designed by Jim Engh Design and McIntosh Golf Design. They are now combined with the back nine holes of the Hackett to create the new Wild Atlantic Dunes Course, which is probably the biggest dunes course in the world.

ENNISCRONE GOLF LINKS

Design: Eddie Hackett, Donald Steel

Ranking: UK and Ireland 68, Ireland 15

Enniscrone Golf Club started out in life in 1918 as a modest nine-hole course. But it was the prolific Irish architect, Eddie Hackett, who put Enniscrone on the map, when, in 1974, he extended the layout to 18 holes. Donald Steel then extended the configuration to 27 holes by using new land and adjoining dunes. He also changed the original flat opening holes, which were out of keeping with the rest.

The main course now plots its way through the gigantic sandhills and across the folded rippled links land. Now, with 27 holes, there are a number of playing options but it seems fitting that the main course is now called Dunes (the third nine is called Scurmore).

ST PATRICKS LINKS

Design: Tom Doak

Ranking: World 41, UK & Ireland 14

The Casey family at the Rosapenna Golf Resort stepped in to purchase the property in late 2012 and they quickly entered into discussions with Tom Doak of Renaissance Golf Design, who convinced the new owners to build one new 18-hole course on the links land that previously housed thirty-six holes. Doak's plan was to fashion one spectacular course instead of two mediocre layouts, using the best of the 300-plus acres for his first 18-hole design in Ireland. Not only that, he helped the Caseys source funding for the project, becoming a part-owner himself.

Construction of the new St Patrick's began in April 2018, with Doak's lead associate Eric Iverson working alongside Clyde Johnson and Angela Moser to complete the build during 2020. The final piece of the jigsaw was put in place when head greenkeeper George Helly – who previously worked at Bandon Dunes and Tara Iti – was brought in to look after the grow-in leading up to the official opening in June 2021.

OLD TOM MORRIS LINKS

Design: Old Tom Morris, Harry Colt, Harry Vardon, Pat Ruddy

Ranking: Ireland 32

Old Tom Morris, whilst visiting Lord Leitrim on his estate in 1891, is credited with the original design of Rosapenna's Old course. The original 18-hole Old Tom Morris course started on some raised land between the clubhouse and the hotel. Nine holes then ran along the low lying area beside Tramore beach before the remaining fairways ran away from the coastline, across the road, up and around a nearby hill, tumbling down again to the start.

Within a short space of time, Rosapenna was the place to be seen playing, as evidenced by a photo from 1896 of George Duncan, Sandy Herd, Tom Ball and Harry Vardon relaxing on the lawns outside the hotel. Vardon returned a decade later to upgrade the course

SANDY HILLS LINKS

Design: Old Tom Morris, Harry Colt, Harry Vardon, Pat Ruddy
Ranking: UK & Ireland 61, Ireland 12

Sandy Hills quietly opened for play in June 2003 and slowly, but surely, the golfing world began to recognise that this course is special. Old Tom chose to route the Old course alongside the dunes, but Pat Ruddy had different ideas – he decided to carve straight through them and this is presumably how the name Sandy Hills came into being. Right from the off, you are in a lunar landscape, among gigantic dunes. Going over and through the dunes provides a platform to drink in the stunning views across the Old course to Sheep Haven Bay beyond.

Measuring 7,183 yards from the back tees and with the par set at 72, Sandy Hills will test the very best. Each and every hole has precise definition with the hummocking fairways framed by the dunes, so the immense challenge is always clearly visible from the tees. Whatever you do, don't stray too far offline, otherwise you'll be lucky to find your ball in the dunes. And make sure that your approach shots are accurate too, because the greens are invariably cut into the dunes or sited on elevated plateaux.

PORTSTEWART

Design: Willie Park Junior, Des Giffin
Ranking: UK and Ireland 80

Portstewart Golf Club was founded way back in 1894, but the origins of golf being played here date back even further to 1889. The Strand course is a bit of a hybrid, a mix of the old and the new. Major development took place in the late 1980s when the original Willie Park Junior layout was updated and seven new holes were constructed in the virgin sand dune range called "Thistly Hollow". The new Strand course, designed by Des Giffin, opened for play in 1992.

And what an exhilarating golf course this is, set amidst imposing, gigantic sand dunes with panoramic views across the Atlantic mouth of Lough Foyle to the Inishowen peninsula beyond.

ROYAL PORTRUSH

Design: Harry Colt, Martin Ebert
Ranking: World 14, UK & Ireland 6

The Dunluce Links is rated as one of the most challenging and spectacular links courses in the world. The Links is named after the nearby ruins of the medieval Dunluce Castle located on the edge of a basalt outcropping overlooking the sea between Portrush and Portballintrae.

The original architect was the famed Harry Colt who produced a breathtaking golf links opening up views of the Atlantic Ocean. In 2015, in for the hosting of The Open in 2019, redesign works commenced under the stewardship of Martin Ebert. For the next 18 months, the shifting sands gave way to the building of five new greens, eight new tee boxes, 10 new bunkers and the creation of two new holes, the 7th and 8th, on land which was once part of the Valley Links.

The result is a magnificent layout providing a fair and scenically stunning challenge for golfers to enjoy.

ROYAL COUNTY DOWN

Design: Old Tom Morris, George Combe, Harry Colt, Donald Steel
Ranking: World 3, UK & Ireland 1

Royal County Down is located in one of the world's most naturally beautiful links settings in the Murlough Nature Reserve. Against the magnificent backdrop of the Mountains of Mourne, the links stretches along the shores of Dundrum Bay, zigzagging back and forth to provide a different vista from virtually every hole.

The narrowest ribbons of fairways thread their way through as impressive a set of sand dunes as could be imagined. The fairways are surrounded by purple heather and golden gorse, so beautiful to look at but so punishing for any who may stray from the prescribed path.

The 'bearded' bunkers are world famous and feature overhanging lips of marram, red fescue and heather. The greens are fast and many are domed, rejecting any shot lacking conviction. This is a true test of any player's command of the traditional bump and run, the preferred way to play links.

ARDFIN

Design: Bob Harrison

Ranking: World 70, UK & Ireland 26, Scotland 12

The 18-hole course at Ardfin is sculpted into the rugged Jura shoreline at the island's southern tip.

The first 11 holes are played on the western stretch, along Ardfin's dramatic cliffs and then down to beach level, all with staggering views across to Islay. The 10th has been described as 'a-once-in-a-lifetime par three' from bluff to bluff. Holes 12, 13 and 14 are also played along the beach before the course turns in along a ridge, providing even more remarkable views with the 18th completing the course in the presence of Jura House.

The whole course is wild and rugged and has been designed to minimise interference with nature, so greens are narrow with fewer bunkers required than most courses, due to the challenging cliffside landscape. Ardfin has already been hailed as "A modern masterpiece" and "An experience that is not available anywhere else." making it a course that should now be on every golfer's bucket list.

THE MACHRIE

Design: Willie Campbell, Donald Steel, DJ Russell

Ranking: UK & Ireland 60, Scotland 21

Designed by Willie Campbell and more recently modernised by course architect DJ Russell, The Machrie is now a world-renowned Championship Golf Links.

Golf has been played at The Machrie since 1891. First conceived by Willie Campbell, the course was famous, for the number of "blind" shots incorporated into the design. More than perhaps any other course in the world, The Machrie needed knowing.

Creativity, shot-making, imagination and feel for distance were the golfer's biggest assets. Sheer power had its occasional place, but golf at The Machrie was more about subtlety than strength. In that respect, nothing has changed. At the "new" Machrie, course architect DJ Russell has maintained the need for artistry amid the inherent randomness that is such a diverting feature of all seaside golf.

MACHRIHANISH DUNES

Design: David Macklay Kidd

Ranking: UK & Ireland 83, Scotland 26

In Scotland, true links golf courses are not created, they are born of the land. More than 130 years ago, Old Tom Morris recognized the potential for great golf here in this rugged, romantic corner of Scotland, saying: “The Almichty Maun hae had gowf in his e’e when he made this place.”

And now, with the mighty Atlantic providing a dramatic backdrop, today’s golfers can enjoy the game as it was meant to be played. Here you will experience, possibly for the first time, golf the way it began. This is the true essence of the game at its most basic: golfer against the elements, golfer against himself, and golfer against a wholly natural course that is never stagnant. The joy of the game in its oldest and purest form – links golf – lies in adapting to the precise conditions of time and place. The ever-changing linksland at Machrihanish Dunes gives you a rare opportunity to create and craft golf shots you might never have imagined playing before. For the golfer who accepts the invitation, the reward is a truly unforgettable experience.

MACHRIHANISH GOLF CLUB

Design: Old Tom Morris, J.H. Taylor, Sir Guy Campbell

Ranking: UK & Ireland 44, Scotland 19

This links must be one of the most natural, romantic and most enjoyable places to play golf in the whole of the British Isles. It’s not long, grand or a championship course, but it is sheer fun. The first, called “Battery”, is one of the best opening holes in golf, a teasing 423-yard par four with an elevated tee on the edge of the shore.

Machrihanish is not just about one great opening hole – the front nine is exceptional and the entire experience is magical. The greens are firm, fast, true and are positioned in the most varied of locations. Some are sunk in punchbowls whilst others are on a raised plateau or flattened dune tops. There are blind tee shots, fabulous sea views, undulating rippling fairways and exciting rugged dunes. The course is a wonderful 18-hole journey from start to finish. Often described as spiritual, Machrihanish is a love affair of sport and nature – challenging but fair, charming, and thrilling. Golf as it was intended to be.

ROYAL TROON

Design: Charlie Hunter, George Strath, James Braid, Mackenzie & Ebert

Ranking: UK & Ireland 32, Scotland 13

Just prior to Royal Troon hosting its first Open Championship in 1923, the Old Course was re-designed, lengthened, and strengthened by James Braid, a five-time Open champion, and one of the era's top architects. Other than having new back tees on several holes, the current Old Course is essentially very similar to Braid's finished work.

The Old Course begins alongside the sea, running southwards in a line for the first six holes. This opening section offers full visibility and plenty of space, but does still require accuracy to avoid deep bunkers. Many good rounds have been fashioned through low scores here, often aided by prevailing downwind conditions.

Beginning with the seventh, the Old Course turns further inland, while simultaneously changing direction, on each of its next six holes, among hillier dunes and thicker vegetation, including gorse and whins, to severely punish offline shots. This sector, with two blind tee shots on the tenth and 11th, marks a sharp rise in difficulty from the opening holes. The 13th starts the inward holes, mainly into the prevailing wind and an extremely tough finish. Its most famous hole is the 123 yard "postage Stamp" Par 3 8th hole

PRESTWICK

Design: Old Tom Morris

Ranking: UK & Ireland 34, Scotland 14

The history of Prestwick Golf Club stretches back over 160 years to a time when golf was in its infancy. In 1851, a group of 57 enthusiastic members, who met regularly at the Red Lion Inn, made the momentous decision to form a golf club purchasing two cottages opposite the tavern. The first cottage would become the members' clubhouse whilst the other was gifted to the club's Keeper of the Green, ball and clubmaker - Old Tom Morris. Together with a gold medal presented by the club's first captain (the Earl of Eglinton) for an annual competition still played for today, the legend of Prestwick was born.

Old Tom's unique design proved popular, and the club enjoyed a meteoric rise hosting the first Open Championship within 10 years of its formation. The last and 24th Open Championship at Prestwick was held 65 years later in 1925. Six of the original greens are still used by the present 18-hole course, which also includes three of the original holes: 2nd (Alps), 4th (Cardinal) and 5th (Sea Headrig).

WESTERN GAILES

Design: Unknown, Tom Simpson, Fred Hawtree

Ranking: UK & Ireland 41, Scotland 18

Western Gailes dates back over 125 years to 1897, when the earliest golfers used to arrive on the train south from Glasgow. Stretching to over 7,000 yards from the championship tees, the entire links lies between the sea and railway. The opening holes head north, before a stretch of nine consecutive holes played in the opposite direction, with the sea on the golfer's right. The closing quintet of holes include the unforgettable 17th, one of the most testing par 4s in all of Scotland.

“Nearly half the greens lie in saucers or bowls and so gather the ball, but as many are full of subtle slopes that neutralise any advantage” said Frank Pennink in his timeless Golfer's Companion.

Western Gailes is most certainly as traditional, attractive and testing a Scottish links as you could wish to find.

LGT Golf offers the travel package and enters in the terms and conditions listed in this brochure and our website www.lgtgolf.com.

Deposit & Final Payment: To make a reservation, please contact LGT Golf on bookings@lgtgolf.com or +43 660 134 5275 A deposit of €650 per person is required at time of booking a river cruise product. For Scotland and Ireland Golf Tours a deposit of €2500 is required. All other land tours require a deposit of €1000 per person. Final payment is due no later than 100 days prior to departure; non-payment may result in the reservation being cancelled.

Pricing: Unless indicated otherwise, all brochure prices are per person in € Euro, based on double occupancy of a standard hotel room. Single rates are available for the tour at a supplement of 50%, except for suites which are 100%. Pricing is accurate at time of printing and expected to be in effect at the time of departure but maybe subject to surcharge or reduction for the following items: transportation costs, including the cost of fuel; government action such as increases in VAT or any other government imposed increases; or currency exchange rate fluctuations. Only amounts in excess of 2% of the holiday price excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges will lead to a surcharge or reduction; any surcharge levied will include an amount to cover agent’s commission. If this means paying more than 10% above the holiday price quoted at time of booking, you will be entitled to cancel the holiday with a full refund of all money paid (not including any premium paid for holiday insurance and amendment charges). Such a cancellation must be made within 14 days of the issue date printed on the surcharge invoice. Failure to pay a surcharge within 14 days may be treated as cancellation of the booking by you, and a cancellation charge of the amount shown under “Cancellation Charges” applicable on the date of LGT Golf’s decision to cancel will be made. Cancellation Charges are dependent on the date of booking and are shown below. No surcharge or reduction will be made less than 30 days before the date of commencement of the holiday but bookings received within this period may be charged at the published price plus any surcharge arising up to the date of that booking. Airfares and air taxes quoted on your invoice or by a reservation agent are only guaranteed once full payment is received by LGT Golf.

Not Included In The Price: Passports/visas, excess baggage fees; vaccinations; gratuities; laundry, beverages and food not otherwise indicated; optional excursions; all other items of a personal nature; travel, health, personal items or accident protection plans.
