

ROYAL AND ANCIENT CASTLES GOLF TOUR

WELCOME

When I started putting together the idea of the best golf courses in Europe, and as the threads of this final product came together I was so excited about the results. This truly is an ultimate golfing holiday, that combines world class golf, michelin starred restaurants and 5 Star accommodation in some of the most exciting cities in Europe.

The tour starts in the Unesco world heritage site of Bruges or Brugge, Belgium staying in the cities iconic hotel. Straight out to links golf at Royal Ostend and Michelin starred restaurants for dinner. The trip gets better and better. Over the course of the trip there will be 11 golf courses ranked in the top 100 in Europe and the World, of which 5 are Royal Golf Courses. The luxury hotels are carefully selected, and three hotels are Castles that date back to at least the 16th Century. Gourmet restaurants in every city, and our award winning concierge and chauffeur service round up this wonderful experience.

Your trip comes with a private chauffeur and golf concierge, who will remain with you throughout your trip. with a maximum of 4 passengers in the 8 seater luxury Mercedes V Class Van, you can be assured of comfort during the transfers. Your luggage and golf clubs will be handled by our concierge and luggage team, meaning that you go hands free throughout your trip.

There will be time for sightseeing or shopping in each city, as well as an LGT Golf surprise. The main tour is designed to finish in the United Kingdom, however we also have the option of heading to Berlin instead, and finish the tour in the capital of Germany, steeped in history and culture. Staying at the city's number 1 address, Unter den Linden, you will enjoy the tour's only 3 Star michelin restaurant, Golf will be at the Seddiner See and the Bad Saarow golf clubs, the latter of which is a true pleasure and has Germany's most beautiful Par 3, the 11th on the Palmer course.

I look forward to hosting you on this amazing trip, one that I put on the top of my own list of trips that I want to take.

Kindest Regards

Nicholas Boekdrukker

THE GOLF COURSES

ROYAL OSTEND

Design: Seymour Dunn

Ranking: Europe 82

Commissioned by King Leopold II and designed by Seymour Dunn, the course opened for play in 1903. Belgium's only links course, it was renovated by famed Martin Hawtree in the 1990's and is considered by some to be the best course in the country. Its 82nd spot in the rankings in Europe is well deserved. Wind plays a big part in the strategy on this course, and the greens and fairways are in great condition between April and October.

Special Rules: Shorts with Knee length socks or mid-calf. No short socks. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 34

ROYAL ZOUTE

Design: Harry Colt

Ranking: Europe 31

12 time host of the Belgium Open

Royal Zoute gained its royal charter in 1925, but the course had already been opened for play 25 years earlier. Redesigned by Harry Colt, the course started out as a links course, but after the tree planting in the late 1940's Royal Zoute has become a Hybrid Links course. Having hosted the Belgian Open 8 times, it has seen a lot of professional golfers including Arnold Palmer, Sir Nick Faldo to name but two. Nick Faldo described it as a hidden Gem.

Special Rules: Socks must cover ankles completely. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 34

Royal and Ancient Castles Golf Tour

ROYAL ANTWERP

Design: Tom Simpson

Ranking: Europe 43

3 time host to the Belgium Open

Royal Antwerp is home to Belgium's oldest golf club, dating back to 1888. Designed by Tom Simpson, it has since developed into one of the finest wooded heathland courses in north west Europe. The terrain is relatively flat, providing an easy-walking course, although one with plenty of inherent challenges, not least staying out of the trees and plentiful bunkering, and getting down in two on the usually immaculate and fast greens. Water ditches are scarce, making a brief appearance on just a couple of holes. At over 6600 yards from the back tees the course plays long enough for most golfers, especially if there's a bit of wind swishing around between the pines. This is not a layout that requires a booming drive off every tee.

Special Rules: Socks must cover ankles completely. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse
Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 28 Walking only

BERNARDUS

Design: Kyle Phillips

Ranking: Europe 25

Host of the KLM Dutch Open

Bernardus Golf is a challenging 18-hole championship golf course, designed by American architect Kyle Phillips, which only opened in 2018 and is set to become one of his masterpieces. Host of the 2021 and 2022 KLM Dutch Open and already ranked 25th in Europe, the course is a picture of harmonious balance between nature, golf and player.

Bernardus Golf was built as a Heathland golf course, which makes it accessible to any golfer. The numerous bunkers are laid out beautifully and the tricky water hazards seamlessly blend in with the background of dunes, heath and gorse. A day of Bernardus gives you the ultimate feeling of peace, quiet and relaxation. Both on the course and on the driving range and short-game area.

THE GOLF COURSES

HILVERSUMSCHE GOLF CLUB

Design: Harry Colt

Ranking: Europe 32

28 time host of the Dutch Open, European Tour

The Hilversumsche Golf club just underwent a major rebuild of its club house, but the Harry Colt designed course still ranks as Europe's 23rd best. As a championship golf venue, the course has hosted a staggering 30 Dutch Open Championships, the last of which was in 2012. Harry Colt, the star architect at the beginning of the 20th Century saw his work renovated by the star of the 21st Century, Kyle Philips, letting the course stand the test of time. Like De Pan, the course is a private members club and one of the most exclusive in the Netherlands.

Special Rules: No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 24. Buggies available.

UTRECHT DE PAN GOLF CLUB

Design: Harry Colt

Ranking: Europe 3 | World 86

3 time host of the Dutch Open, European Tour

The name Harry Colt could have been used to title this tour, as we find many of the world's top 100 courses designed by that iconic golf architect. Utrecht de Pan is no exception ranking 3rd in Europe and 86th in the world. The course is laid out in classic English heathland style doglegging through stands of pine, birch, and oak. Martin Hawtree renovated the course in the 1990's cementing De Pan's place in the world's top rankings. And to remind us all of the course's name, the statue of Pan greets you as you walk off the 18th.

Special Rules: Long socks with shorts. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 24. Buggies available on an extremely limited basis.

Royal and Ancient Castles Golf Tour

HAMBURGER GOLF CLUB

Design: Harry Colt

Ranking: Europe 11

8 time host of the German Open, European Amateur Championships

Harry Colt was also asked to design the new course for the Hamburg Golfclub, and in 76 days, with horse, tractor and 140 men completed the task including the seeding. What emerged is one of the best inland tracks in continental Europe, and one of the few courses that have Colt's original bunker systems and green complexes as thought out by the great designer. This is due in large part to the perfect land. With a complete absence of water on the course, this is a perfect chance to play Harry Colts finest design in Germany.

Special Rules: No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 24. Walking only.

WINSTON GOLF - Links Course

Design: David Krause

Ranking: Europe 69

7 time Host of the European Seniors Tour

East of Hamburg lies one of Germany's most controversial courses, because it's a links course that's no where near the ocean. David Krause designed a course that doffs its hat to the original links courses, but in such a clever way that there are no more than a few steps from green to tee. Seeded with 3 different types of Fescue, the only difference between fairway, rough, green and tee-box is just the height of the cut. For the high handicapper, this course is not recommended. At 7000 yards the course is punishing unless you keep it on the short stuff, but wow what an experience to play this incredible course.

Special Rules: Handicap Certificate required Max 36. Walking only. Electric trolleys available

WEST SUSSEX

Design: Campbell, Hutchison and Hotchkin

Ranking: World 91

Host of the Womens Amateur Championship and Vagliano Trophy

West Sussex is little-known except by real golf aficionados, yet it offers one of England's best heathland challenges. This is heathland golf at its prettiest and best, on a layout where design intricacies form the bulk of the challenge rather than length. Affectionately known as a long short course, don't let the par of 68 and modest length of 6,351 yards lull you into a false sense of security, for there is only one par 5 – the opening hole – and several lengthy par 4s, especially on the back nine. The opening Par 5 is the easiest on the course, and its best to get your birdie on the cards as the challenge of the course hasn't even started.

Special Rules: Caps, visors, hats and waterproofs should be removed when in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 36. Walking only

ROYAL CINQUE PORTS

Design: Hunter, Braid and Campbell

Ranking: World 95

2 time Open Championship Venue

Royal Cinque Ports (pronounced 'Sink' port, and also known as Deal) is a classic links course which will have you grinning from ear to ear. It's been host to the Open on two occasions and countless top quality amateur tournaments. Right on the coast, it is probably rare to find Cinque Ports on a calm day and the yardages on the card will only count for so much. From the yellow tees it is a pleasant 6,500 yards and it's a classic out and back course with the first in front of the clubhouse playing to the south before turning along the shore for holes 2-10 (normally with the wind) and then turning into the prevailing breeze for 11-18.

Special Rules: Long socks with shorts. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Tie and Jacket in the clubroom after 11 Am. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 24. Walking Only with caddies (Included)

Royal and Ancient Castles Golf Tour

ROYAL ST GEORGE

Design: Purves, Mackenzie and Pennink

Ranking: World 22

14 time Open Championship venue

What can you say about the 22nd best golf course in the world other than WOW! IT starts with the member of staff in a tie and blazer, an incredibly warm welcome, and goes to the professional caddie that guides your round as you tee off on the first hole of this Par 70 6340 yard course. Each and every hole is one to fall in love with. The 4th with the tallest and deepest bunker in England, the 5th as you catch your first sight of the sea, where the romans landed in 46 AD, every hole is a pleasure to play and this course deserves its ranking in the worlds top 30. Caddies are included in your round and are essential in making the experience as special as it is.

Special Rules: Long socks with shorts. No caps to be worn in the Clubhouse. Handicap Certificate/Card required, max 18. Walking Only with Caddies (Included). Jacket and Tie in the Clubhouse after 11 am.

THE BERLIN OPTION

THE GOLF COURSES

GOLF AND COUNTRYCLUB SEDDINER SEE

Design: Robert Trent Jones Jr.

Ranking: Germany 23

The grandson of the Iron Chancellor, Otto von Bismark led the developement of this golf complex, and the south course was opened for play in 1997. Designed by Robert trent jones, it is his only course in Germany. The course feautures a lot of bunkers and sand, however there is a subtelty to the design, and the “resistance to scoring” is well and truly defined here. Its a great course to play, but focus, accuracy and long shots are asked of every golfer.

The wonderful clubhouse and its members are extremely welcoming in this Berlin suburb.

GOLF CLUB BAD SAAROW - PALMER COURSE

Design: Arnold Palmer

Ranking: Germany: 21

With 63 holes in total to choose from at the golf club, it was a tough choice between the links course of Sir Nick Faldo and the astounding beauty and fun of the Palmer course - not really. We fell in love with the Palmer course and it is just a pure treat to play. It has hosted the Eisenhower trophy and the Par 3 11th (pictured) has been voted the most beautiful Par 3 in the country. It is truly a fun and fantastic golf course.
